EDUCATION POLICY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

For People Seeking Better Results for Children and Youth

APPLICATION

We are pleased you are considering the Education Policy Fellowship Program (EPFP). EPFP is a ten-month professional development program for individuals whose work record reflects strong leadership abilities or potential and a concern for improving the life chances of children and youth. Participants in EPFP hold full-time positions in diverse organizations at the local, state and national levels. Fellows are supported by their employing agencies.

THE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Fellows remain in their full-time positions and use their work environment as the context for examining important leadership and policy issues in their states and in the nation. EPFP activities are directed by on-site Coordinators.

EPFP brings Fellows and ideas together through a variety of on-site learning opportunities (such as seminars, informal discussions, site visits, skill development workshops, and individual or group projects), through electronic networking and information sharing, and through participation in the national conference during the Fellowship year that brings together Fellows from all program sites. The Washington Policy Seminar increases Fellows' knowledge of national policy issues and processes and gives them a chance to explore the impact of national policy on their work.

Participation in EPFP yields key results. The program stands on three legs of leadership, policy, and networking that provide Fellows with a unique personal development laboratory for applying new insights and for practicing new skills. Fellows have opportunities to:

- (1) develop a broadened understanding of the policy process;
- (2) hone their communications and decision-making skills;
- (3) refine their potential for leadership; and
- (4) expand their network of professional colleagues.

As a result, employing agencies are rewarded with better informed and more skillful employees.

PROGRAM FEES AND EMPLOYER SPONSORSHIP

Each person's employing agency—the sponsor—pays the base program fee of $1925, travel costs to the national meeting, and any special site-specific programming fees. In addition, the employer provides release time for on-site and national activities.

ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION PROCESS

EPFP invites your application if you have:

- a commitment to personal and professional development on behalf of children and youth
- a track record for making things happen—inside and across agencies/organizations
- substantive work experiences
- a bachelor's degree or its equivalent
- a full-time professional position
- the endorsement and financial support of your employing organization

EPFP requires participation in on-site training activities which are generally, but not always, held at the conclusion of the normal work day. In addition, Fellows are expected to attend the national conference. Please consider these extra demands on your time in light of your current professional and personal schedule. If you cannot participate fully in EPFP, please do not complete the application.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION SCHEDULE

APRIL – JUNE	EPFP application material distributed.
MAY – AUG.	Applications returned to EPFP Coordinators.
JUNE – SEPT.	Fellows notified of acceptance.
SEPT. – OCT.	Fellowship program begins.

EPFP schedules vary from site to site. Please contact the EPFP Coordinator in your state to obtain site-specific programming and scheduling information. Final selection of Fellows is made by EPFP Coordinators in consultation with the applicant's sponsor.

ENDORSEMENT: TO THE SUPERVISOR/EMPLOYING AGENCY REPRESENTATIVE

Fellows generally participate in weekly, semi-monthly, or monthly meetings conducted on-site, and IEL usually sponsors the national meetings for fellows across all sites. The Washington Policy Seminar increases Fellows' knowledge of national policy issues and processes and gives them a chance to explore the impact of national policy on their work. The EPFP program tuition, plus travel-related costs to the national meeting are paid by the employing agency and/or the Fellow. (The total of base tuition plus site-specific programs varies by site.) Your signature ensures (1) your employee's release time for full participation in the program and (2) payment of program related costs. If you have any questions, please contact the EPFP Coordinator in your state or call the EPFP national office at the Institute for Educational Leadership in Washington, DC at (202) 822-8405 or x135.

THE INSTITUTE FOR EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

The Institute for Educational Leadership (IEL) is a non-partisan, not-for-profit organization established in 1964.

OUR VISION:

IEL envisions a society
that uses its resources effectively to achieve better futures for all children and youth.

OUR BELIEFS:

- All children and youth have as a birthright the opportunity and support needed to grow, learn and become contributing members of our democratic society.
- Quality education is a responsibility shared by school systems, families, communities, businesses and governments.
- Strategic alliances and partnerships are essential to achieve measurable and sustainable results for all children and youth.
- Culturally competent leaders are vital to empowering organizations to address the needs of a diverse society.
- Leadership and leadership development are critical tools to ensure that all children and youth can take advantage of their birthright.

OUR CHALLENGE:

Our national task is obvious.
We must increase student achievement and prepare young people to meet the challenges of the 21st century.
The future quality of American life is at stake.

OUR MISSION:

IEL's mission is to build the capacity of individuals and organizations in education and related fields to work together—
across policies, programs and sectors.

Through EPFP, IEL seeks to develop, support and sustain broad-based, multi-cultural leadership to achieve better results for children and youth.

To obtain a list of publications or more information on IEL's programs and other areas of work, please contact IEL.
